

Chief Executive Officer

Science World

Location: Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

The role of CEO of Science World is an exciting opportunity for the right leader to join an important, successful, and growing science centre, and bring it to the next level. It will require an individual who will embrace an ambitious mandate and sees the transformational opportunity that STEAM literacy has to ignite wonder and empower dreams in communities throughout BC, with cascading effects well beyond provincial boundaries.

In this time of unprecedented change, the opportunity is for a new Chief Executive Officer to build on strong foundational groundwork, and to lead, define, and activate how it evolves and takes shape to ensure its vision is realized to its full potential. It will require a bold, visionary, and creative leader who can ignite its purpose and bring it to fruition.

Highlights of this opportunity include:

- Provide vision and leadership to an award-winning, financially sound, and growing science centre in one of the most vibrant cities in North America.
- Launch a significant capital campaign, engaging the community and setting campaign goals to "reimagine an icon" through the vision of an improved dome theatre and new multi-purpose innovation space.
- Provide strong leadership and development opportunities for a passionate and engaged employee base of over 200 staff and volunteers.
- Embrace an ambitious growth mandate that understands the opportunity STEAM has to address some of the largest and most complex challenges of both the present and future.
- Fulfill the vision that within five years Science World will be known not only as an amazing learning resource for children, but also as an engaging place for older audiences to explore the pressing issues of our time, and to co-create positive visions of the future.
- Help to lead the transformation of teaching and learning in BC, through innovative programming and outreach promoting STEAM literacy throughout the province.
