

2018 HIGHLIGHTS

Equity, Diversity & Inclusion

CASC 2018 conference sets the stage for a more inclusive and diverse CASC.

CASC hosts STEMneutral's webinar on inclusivity in STEM.

20
organizations joined the conversation.

Partners with Pride In STEM for #LGBTSTEMday.

Government & Advocacy

Minister of Science & Sport, the Honourable Kirsty Duncan, invites CASC to participate in the Prime Minister's Science Fair and hosts a roundtable discussion.

11
member organizations attended & contributed.

CASC works with Canadian astronaut, Col. Chris Hadfield, to create a video for International Science Centre & Science Museum Day (ISCSMD).

16
members participated in ISCSMD.

CASC supports launch events across Canada in collaboration with the Canadian Space Agency for David Saint-Jacques' mission to the International Space Station.

Build & Leverage

Dr. Marianne Mader joins as the new Executive Director, bringing a strong advocacy focus and connections to informal science learning communities across Canada.

With membership input and a task force in place, the 2019 - 2022 strategic planning process begins.

6
new members

69
total members

Funding & Programming

Marks the close of Innovation150, a Canada-wide celebration.

28
full members

$625,000
in government support

CASC awards 4 members the Science Outreach and Engagement Grant supported by Natural Resources Canada.

$32K
distributed

Networking & Partnerships

ASTC CEO & President attends the CASC conference and conversations continue about ways to collaborate.

80 delegates attended the Canadian Get-Together at ASTC.

CASC is a founding member of Space Matters, a national consortium supporting space outreach in Canada.

www.canadiansciencecentres.ca

